Welcome to
Macmillan English Campus 25

The latest generation of Macmillan English Campus, the original English language learning platform, Macmillan English Campus 25 offers flexible, on-demand practice for classes everywhere. It allows teachers and institutions to easily create and deliver customised online courses to suit the diverse needs and levels of their young adult and adult students.

With a strong focus on flexibility and choice, the user-friendly Macmillan English Campus 25 includes a huge range of learning objectives, topics, and formats. Teachers and institutions can use the built-in filters to easily create courses that fit their curriculum and encourage more learning outside of the classroom, which frees up more time for face-to-face interaction.
